excellent field for the use of cavalry, in which Russia has a long and well superior to the other nations at war. The Cosacks are retaining the reputation which they have in Manchuria.

The Austrians apparently have sent stronger forces against Serbia and have driven the Serbs out of their capital, Belgrade. Of what is going on in Bosnia, which the Serbians and Montenegrins invaded almost at the same time, nothing has been disclosed for weeks, but operations against their northern border must have had an effect on the Serbian plan.

TURKEY NEAR WAR WITH GREECE.

Nothing of first-class moment has occurred in the near east, but Turkey is being attacked in isolated spots by the Russians and British. The Greeks also are apparently coming very close to war with Greece, the situation having been aggravated by the sinking of a Greek steamer by the Turks and the threatening of the Greeks in Asia Minor. Neither Bulgaria nor Rumania has yet made any move.

The Union defense forces continue to rout the rebels in South Africa. Those in the northern part of Cape Province, which have been a worry to the government, have been completely routed, and those in Transvaal, where another four hundred have been captured, are scattering.

In Orange Free State, however, several small commands have been looting towns and damaging railways.

FELL AT YPRES.

LONDON, November 8.—A Times dispatch from Dunkirk, France, filed Saturday night, says that the British "After a desperate attack lasting the whole week the German forces broke the allied line at Ypres has fallen."

It may be admitted the position at Ypres two days ago was serious. Under the terms of the armistice, the allies withdrew from the town, which the Germans had taken, and which the allies had lost from both sides.

The Germans made a superbman effort under cover of a force bombardment. Masses of men were launched in succession at chosen points on the front. Two regiments went down with bayonets to stem the advance. It was the most terrible bayonet charge of the whole war. It succeeded. The break in the line was repaired and the German attack once more was driven back.

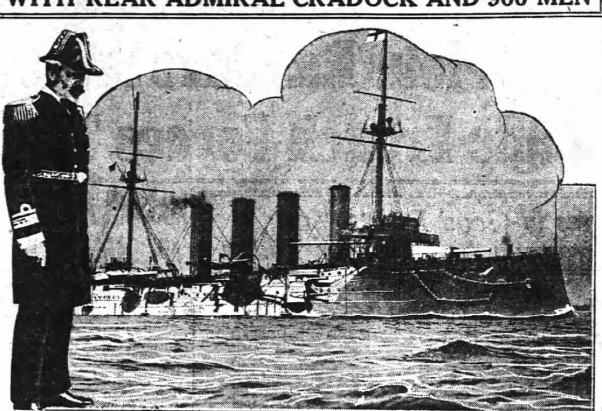

That was their last effort. Today the Germans are dropping only an occasional desultory shell into Ypres. They are attacking Arras in the south, but not with the same fury as in the onslaught of the past week. The Germans are believed to have reached 100 miles from Ypres.

GERMANS PREPARE FOR A RETREAT.

The Hague, November 8.—(Via London.) The severity with which the German order against leaving Belgian territory is enforced is indicated by the detention of the official courier of the Dutch foreign ministry, who has been accompanied daily by drive by automobile from Brussels and Antwerp. He was forcibly returned to Antwerp and released only on a special permit from the command.

Several Dutch correspondents who have managed to cross the frontier and into Belgium, have been ordered to leave. The German army is preparing to retreat. Northernlanders are moving out of Belgium and fortifications are being demolished. The German army is suffering severely. It has been in the line for three or four weeks in their attack on the Belgian coast. The German army is suffering severely. ENGLISH CRUISER GOOD HOPE REPORTED SUNK WITH REAR ADMIRAL CRADOCK AND 900 MEN

REAR ADMIRAL CRADOCK, ENGLISH CRUISER GOOD HOPE.

There is little hope remaining in Valparaiso, Chile, that Rear Admiral Sir Christopher Cradock, his flagship the Good Hope, and his 900 men will escape the fate of the German fleet. The German fleet, which was sighted on November 1, and which was reported to have been destroyed, was seen again on November 8, and was reported to have been destroyed.

Failure of Drive at Dunkirk Is Admitted by the Germans

Berlin, November 8.—(Via London.) The following communication from the German general headquarters was issued today:

"Our attacks near Ypres and west of Lille continued yesterday (Saturday). An important elevation near Valenciennes, on the west side of the Argonne, which was the main object of the attack, was taken. Two large guns and two quick-firing guns were captured.

"For the rest, the foggy day passed calmly, on the western front. The German army is suffering severely. It has been in the line for three or four weeks in their attack on the Belgian coast. NEW PRESIDENT MADE BY VILLA

Alleged Gen. Gutierrez Has Been Imprisoned by Carranza's Foes for Refusing to Yield to Their Demands.

New York, November 8.—General
Sollado Gutierrez, elected president of Mexico at the Aguascalientes convention, according to a telegram sent to come to the general convention, has been arrested by the Mexican bureau of information. The same agency last night announced Gutierrez had repudiated the acts of the convention.

The telegram accredited to Carranza did not say where the new president had been captured or where he was imprisoned. The reason for his arrest and confinement, the message said, was that he had refused to be dominated by Villa's demands.

The telegram follows:
"I wish to inform you that General
Gutierrez, who repudiated the Aguascalientes convention and was elected president, has been captured by General Carranza and imprisoned. The reason for his arrest is that he refused to be
dominated by Villa's demands."

"I wish further to inform you that I consider the action of the Carranza army as a farce and for that reason alone I am forced to repudiate the convention. The convention, which was dominated by Villistas and reactionaries, failed to accomplish its purpose and is out of date. Instead of working out a set of regulations for the future,
which Mexico might attain its normal conditions of peace and prosperity,
they went and appointed another provisional president, hoping to able to dominate him. They realized that Gutierrez would not follow
the dictations of Villa, they imprisoned him."

NOTHING TO ALARM
AT VERA CRUZ.
Washington, November 8.—There is nothing alarming in the report that Veracruz Brigadier Fuentun reported to Secretary Garrison. Rumors of possible attacks on the American outposts had prompted Mr. Garrison to ask for information. General Fuentun's dispatch follows:

"There is nothing to be alarmed in local conditions. Many unusual rumors have prevailed recently. I think it better to disregard all such rumors.
Friends here are against Gutierrez, who was one of the signers of the Nogales agreement. They are against him because he is reported to have furnished arms to the Carranza army.
City, are preparing to lay the matter before the state legislature. They request that this government interfere. The Carranza army, who are guerrillas in this country at the time of the peace conference."

GUTIERREZ REPORT NOT CREDITED.
El Paso, Texas, November 8.—The report that Villa had imprisoned Gutierrez and that Gutierrez had repudiated
the Aguascalientes convention was not credited tonight by either Carranza or Villa, according to reports received here.

The latter pointed out that Gutierrez would not have been taken to prison unless he had been willing to accede. Radical Mexican newspapers reported arrest of Gutierrez, but said he had not accepted any of the proposals.

AMERICANS ASKED TO QUIT VERA CRUZ.
Veracruz, November 8.—Many Vera Cruz merchants, at the behest of the constitutionalists, have petitioned the American authorities to leave the city.
The petition says the United States is making an attempt to force the people to pay duties and taxes a second time, and that if the Americans will depart they willingly will make the second payment. A few merchants who withhold their petition, and who petition are said to have been threatened with reprisals by the constitutionalists finally recover the petitioning attacking the American troops and given much trouble.

Signatures of General Frederick Russell, of the United States army, and of the military vicar, have strengthened his force.

TO THE SHERIFF TODAY

Other Indictments May Be Announced, Following His Return to the City.

Starling developments are expected
this morning in the indictments against an alleged gang of bond forgers, when Charles C. Tedder surrenders at 11 o'clock this morning.

Tedder was indicted several days ago. A large number of indictments, which were kept secret, were also returned at the same time. Harry Lasater, who was indicted in the Frank investigation, was indicted and is being held under bond of $5,000.

Tedder disappeared at the time the true bills were returned against him.
Police headquarters was notified last night that he telephoned over long distance to his attorney, John A. Boykin, that he would return to Atlanta this morning from Greenville and surrender to the sheriff.

Boykin said it is well to be assured against him. Arrangements are being made to put up this amount and obtain his freedom.

Tedder was formerly an assistant to Attorney General Clegg. He was a lawyer and accuser. Tedder was indicted in the case of the bond forgers, which was charged frequently during the Frank case. At one time he had been indicted in the case of the Burns gang while the Frank investigation was being conducted.

He and Harry Latham are accused of being involved in the indictments against the bond forgers. Latham is legged to have been perpetrated at one time. Latham is a former associate of Victor Dorsey's office in securing evidence against the alleged gang.

It is believed that with Tedder's surrender the case will be closed. The Rev. G. W. Eichelberger spoke on the "Greatest Question Before the American People" at the Congregational Tabernacle Sunday night.

"I was talking to a man recently who said 'I'll bet I can buy one hundred drinks of whiskey in Atlanta in one day,'" asserted Dr. Eichelberger.
"If that is true, I am a rich man. I can do that. I can make $1,000 about as easily as I can buy a drink of whiskey. I can give you $1,000 if you will give me a drink of whisky. The only condition that I impose is that you have a man standing by whom I may select to see that it is a bona

Yellow Jackets Get Ready For Their Red and Black Opponents Next Saturday

Despite the fierce game with Auburn, the Yellow Jackets had less men hurt than in less fierce games this season, and will settle down to work today in preparation for the game with their time-honored rivals, Georgia, next Saturday.

The Georgia-Tech game is always Atlanta's biggest game, and as a general thing does it throw to the four winds when these two eleven meet. It is hardly possible to overdo the possible winner in advance.

But this season all the dope points to a Tech victory. The Jackets appear to have an edge that even the most optimistic Georgia supporter will have to concede.

Consistent of the Auburn-Tech and Auburn-Georgia scores gives a line on the two old rivals. Remember as Auburn doubled her score against

Saturday's Games Determine The S. I. A. A. Title Holder

The championship of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association hinges on the result of two big games which will be played next Saturday.

Mike Donahue's Auburn eleven has only Vanderbilt between them and a good claim for the title as any team in the association, but the Big Blue team must show better than it did play and a more reliable defense than it showed Saturday, if they hope to come off unscathed.

Auburn has had her goal line maintained by record until the end of the season, but she has been hurt by a more than sufficient reason. She was crippled up badly in the game with Georgia, and it is doubtful if she will be able to play in the game with Vanderbilt.

Robinson is another doubtful quantity. Arnold comes down from the same list.

PRINCETON FACES YALE SATURDAY

Comparison of "Buildups" With Crimson Will Also Be Had—Crimson Plays Brown.

A comparison of the relative strength of Yale and Princeton, the two teams which will meet Saturday, is being made by the press. The Crimson has won five, Auburn two and one resulted in a tie. Auburn has the lead in the series, having won four of the five games. The only other game of any large importance Saturday is the game between Georgia and Auburn.

AUBURN HAS WON BUT TWO FROM COMMODORES

When Auburn and Vanderbilt lock horns in Birmingham next Saturday it will be the ninth meeting between the two teams.

In the eight games already played Vanderbilt has won five, Auburn two and one resulted in a tie. Auburn has the lead in the series, having won four of the five games.

Two Intercollegiate Games on Saturday; Interest in Both

Two more intercollegiate scraps, battles between the football titans of the east and the west, will be staged on Saturday and considerable interest will be manifested in the two games.

At Ann Arbor, Michigan will play her fourth consecutive game with eastern team, and if returned the victory will split the series.

If the War Spreads.

(From The Cleveland Leader.)

It is to be hoped that no more actions will take place in the war which have involved more than a few millions of people. It is impossible to perceive that strong forces tend to do more than to increase the scope of the war.

Vanderbilt, however, is sure to have received a severe handling in the game with Tennessee, and the condition will hardly be any better than Auburn's.

The Auburnites are sure to be their best against Vanderbilt. They have progressed against Vanderbilt, and they have progressed against Vanderbilt.

W. & J. LEADS TEAMS OF EAST

W. & J. Has Made 222 Points So Far—Dartmouth Is Second, and Pittsburg Third.

Washington and Jefferson now leads the teams of the east in points scored against the opposition, having made 222 points in the season.

Dartmouth is ranking second with 180 points, while Pittsburg is ranking third with 160 points.

Georgia Has Won Two More Games Than Tech In Over Twenty Years

When Georgia and Tech meet on Grant field next Saturday, it will be the twentieth meeting between the two old rivals.

Of the seventeen games already played, Georgia has won ten, Tech seven and one resulted in a tie.

War Is a Costly Game.

(From The Boston Post.)

On the first of October, the French Minister of Finance, Alexandre Ribot, announced that the cost of the war to the French government for the two months of the year amounted to $12,000,000,000.

A Wise Girl.

"Ab, Marie," said the ardent young millionaire, "I love you more than I love my money."

"Good work," replied the demure girl, "I have heard that a man who loves his money more than he loves his wife, is a fool."

Miss Evangeline Booth Tells Story of the Salvation Army

Leader of Great Host Pleads for Linen to Bandage the Wounds of War Sufferers in Europe.

Miss Eva Booth, commander of the Salvation Army of the United States, thrilled a large audience at the Strand theater, last night, when she recited the life history of her father, General William Booth, the founder of the great army.

With that same stroke of eloquence which made General Booth famous as an evangelist, the daughter drew a word picture of his entire life, beginning with his birth in Nottingham, England, and ending in London, where thousands of men and women, ranging from all parts of the world to shed tears over his death. At different times in her life, Miss Booth amused her audience with some humorous story connected with her father's life, and almost in the same breath she moved them to tears with a story of hardship and suffering.

Her lecture illustrated, and moving pictures at intervals of her lecture to illustrate the story of her father's life. She showed the little home in Nottingham where her father was born, and told of his conversion in a non-conformist church at the age of nine. She related some of his experiences as a youth of 15 when he began to preach, and how he became an evangelist in the Methodist church. She told of his resignation from the church to take up the work of preaching on the street corners of East and London.

"His work was among the very poorest," she said, "and he sought them out and preached to them and gave to them what he had. He was not among those people that his life work began."

Miss Booth then told the story of the development of the East End mission, and then she related the story which dealt with the founding of the great army. She explained that the work of her father had reached such an extent and had become so large that he had decided to form an organization to help the poor and the suffering. She said that the organization was named "Volunteers" and of how her father reached over his secretary's shoulder and said to her "Volunteers" for the word "Volunteers" for the word "Volunteers".

She then told of his work throughout the world as the head of the Salvation Army, and explained the rapid growth and development of the army. She described the work of the army in the United States, and the work which inspired her father to the last international congress. She said that her father attended the last international congress in London, and that he died there.

Before closing her lecture, Miss Booth made an appeal for the work of the army in the United States, and she said that she was inspired to start the campaign which she had been conducting. She said that surgical operations are being performed on the battle field without
